Section 2b: Court order related to the participant's benefit

Is there a court order (for example - domestic relations order, divorce decree, child support order, etc.) that requires some or all of your benefit be paid to a spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent?

Yes

No

Section 3: Lump-sum payment election

If you are the participant, you and your spouse have to make an important decision about how your benefit is paid.

Important Information about Your Benefit Choices

You need to decide whether you want to receive your benefit as a single lump-sum payment now or as a monthly annuity benefit. If you are currently married and want a lump-sum payment, your spouse's consent is needed for PBGC to comply with your election.

If you complete this application and your spouse consents on the next page to your election, PBGC will pay your entire benefit to you in a lump-sum. No annuity benefits will be payable to you or your spouse. If you would prefer to receive your benefit in a monthly annuity form, call PBGC and do not submit this application.

Annuity Benefit Form

At the time that you are eligible to retire, PBGC will pay your benefit as an annuity, generally monthly, for your life. The form of your annuity benefit will depend on your marital status at retirement. If you are married, you will receive a joint-and-survivor benefit unless your spouse consents to your waiver of this form of benefit in writing. The joint-and-survivor form provides a benefit for your life and, if you die before your spouse, at least 50% of your benefit amount will be paid to your spouse for the rest of your spouse's life. To help pay for your spouse's benefits, your payment will most likely be reduced. If your spouse consents to your waiver of the joint-and-survivor benefit, or if you are not married, you may select from a number of PBGC optional benefit forms.

Lump-Sum Payment

You will receive a single payment now of your entire benefit. No annuity benefits will be payable to you or your spouse.

An example of your choices:

Lump-sum payment: Sam elects a lump-sum payment and Carol consents to it (Carol signs in front of a notary public), and Sam receives $7,000 in the form of a single lump-sum benefit, with interest. No future payments will be payable to Sam or Carol.

Joint-and-50% survivor annuity: Sam (age 74) and Carol (age 69) are married when Sam retires. Sam receives a payment of $260 for the rest of his life. After Sam dies, Carol receives $130 a month for the rest of her life. If Carol dies first, Sam will continue to receive $260 a month for the rest of his life.

Other annuity choices: If Sam waives a joint-and-survivor annuity when he retires, and Carol consents to his waiver, other annuity benefit forms are available. To learn more about your specific annuity benefit choices, call PBGC at 1-800-400-7242.

Section 4: Spousal consent for a participant to receive an elective lump-sum benefit.

If you are married and want to receive your benefit in a lump sum or single payment, your spouse must complete this section.

Your spouse's consent must be signed in the presence of or acknowledged by a notary public.

By signing below, I consent to my spouse's election to receive his/her benefit in a lump-sum or single payment. My consent is voluntary. I have read and I understand the information provided with this application. In particular, I understand all of the following:

- I have a right not to consent to my spouse's election of a lump-sum payment.
- If I do not consent, my spouse's benefit may only be paid in the automatic form for married participants. Under that automatic form, if my spouse dies before me, I will receive a benefit equal to at least 50% of my spouse's benefit for the rest of my life.
- If I do consent to my spouse's election of a lump-sum payment, I cannot revoke my consent after PBGC makes the payment to my spouse.
