3. Designation of Beneficiary for Payments Owed at Death – PBGC may owe you money at the time of your death. Typically, this happens if your final benefit is higher than the estimated benefit we have been paying. If another person continues to receive your benefit after your death (as with a joint-and-survivor or certain-and-continuous annuity), we will pay the money owed to that person. If there are no continuing benefits or the person designated to receive continuing payments dies before you, PBGC will make any payments owed to you at the time of your death to the person(s) and/or entity(ies) (such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) that you designate in this section. If you do not make a designation, or if all the beneficiaries you designate below die before you, PBGC will pay the money in this order to: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, or your next of kin.

I name the following as my beneficiary(ies). This designation replaces any previous designation and will only be effective when PBGC receives it.
